

NEW ARCHITECTURE NOW

CELEBRATING GAUTENG'S NEXT GENERATION OF ARCHITECTS

Please join us at the SAIA offices at 7 Keyes Avenue, Rosebank (in the DesignQuarter building) on 7 September at 18:30, to celebrate the energy, vision and talent of the next generation of architects emerging from the architectural schools located in South Africa's economic engine room, Gauteng. The exhibition will run from 7-15 September to and is open to the public. Opening hours, weekdays: 09:00-16:00 (Closed weekends).

Please see the various CPD-accredited events forming part of the exhibition programming (these are captured on the hand-out all visitors receive when entering the exhibition space).

This exhibition has been made possible by the collective work of many hands and numerous contributions:

The curatorial team (comprising PAPER CUT Studio, members of the Gifa Education Committee) wish to thank the following supporters, funders and partners for their generous contributions to this week-long celebration of architecture:

- GLO LIGHTING
- SAFAL STEEL
- CLAYBRICK
